Commissioner David N. Clayburn stated the 1982 water season was a year of ample water without any restrictions. There were 18 temporary changes of applications approved in the year 1982, most of the changes were do to construction of features on the Bonneville Unit, Central Utah Project on a yearly basis from application No. 36630 (re-3822). Some flooding on the Strawberry Rivers which damaged ditch fillings. The 1982 was a very good crop year and water year in the area. Mr. Clayburn gave thanks to all water users for their cooperation. Books containing 1982 water and land use as compiled by Mr. Clayburn was distributed.

Mr. Leo Brady discussed the water condition. The Reservoirs were all full and the spring run-off would be great, with some flooding. The cost of project water to the water users will be $2.75, per acre to those who may need additional water.
